MEET THE TEAM

IT'S THE LITTLE THINGS

CAPTAIN JUSTIN LOWD

Languages: English

Justin has been around the ocean his whole life. He began as a dive master in the Florida Keys aboard dive vessels and then worked his way up to becoming a captain. He moved into the towing industry, where he learned various trades such as towing multiple vessels at once, mechanical skills, and solving issues on the move. His goal was to work aboard yachts, either private or charter. For the last 12 years, he has been with the same client, handling private and chartered yachts, and now has over 20 years of captain experience. He takes pleasure in keeping the dream alive and providing excellent service for guests.

MATE MORNAY DELPORT

Languages: English

Mornay brings a versatile skillset to CARPE DIEM, combining strong deck maintenance expertise with professional dive instruction and a background in engineering support. With over three years of experience across vessels ranging from 30m to 106m, Mornay is as comfortable detailing teak as he is managing diving operations or troubleshooting onboard systems. He most recently served as First Officer on a 33m yacht, where he was responsible for guest activities, toy management, and trip planning, while also handling deck and engineering upkeep. His earlier roles as a dive instructor and conservation project leader in South Africa and Mozambique have made him a confident waterman with a passion for marine environments and guest engagement. Calm under pressure and solutions-oriented, Mornay is a valuable all-rounder with a hands-on, can-do attitude—always ready with a smile and eager to deliver unforgettable experiences both on and below the water.

CHIEF STEWARDESS AGNE JANKAUSKAITE

Languages: Lithuanian (Native), English (Full Professional), Spanish (Full Professional)

With over 10 years of experience in hospitality and 4 in yachting, Agne is a poised and proactive Chief Stewardess who blends flawless service with genuine warmth. Her diverse experience aboard high-profile yachts like MY A+, DAR, and Silver Lining has refined her skills in fine dining service, wine pairings, themed table décor, and event planning. She is particularly skilled at anticipating guest needs and managing the interior to perfection. Multilingual and emotionally intelligent, Agne fosters a positive crew dynamic while maintaining the highest standards of guest service.

DECKHAND TIAAN SPIES

Languages: English

Young, driven, and eager to learn, Tiaan is a reliable and hardworking Deckhand with a strong foundation in deck maintenance and engineering support. His previous long-term role aboard M/Y SEAQUEST developed his skills in washdowns, line handling, teak maintenance, and assisting in the engine room. He's a team player who takes pride in keeping the yacht in pristine condition, and brings a can-do attitude to every task onboard.

CHEF JAMALL PETTY

Languages: English

Chef Jamall Petty is not only a seasoned yacht chef but also a celebrated culinary entertainer, television personality, and proud Bahamian ambassador of flavour. With a culinary journey spanning over two decades, Jamall brings a unique blend of showmanship, creativity, and world-class technique to the galley of CARPE DIEM.

He made his television debut representing the Bahamian Olympic Culinary Team on Bahamas @ Sunrise, later appearing on PBS's Taste of History, ABC's Talk of Alabama, NBC, and numerous international media outlets. Jamall is the former host of the popular cooking show Island Flare, which aired for five seasons locally and internationally, showcasing his passion for "farm to table" and "sea to spoon" dining.

In the yachting world, Jamall has served as freelance chef aboard a wide range of vessels from 80' to 172', where he consistently delivered bespoke menus tailored to client preferences, including dietary restrictions and themed culinary experiences. Known for his bold Caribbean flavours, fine dining finesse, and warm hospitality, he transforms each meal into a sensory journey.

Beyond his culinary talent, Chef Jamall is also a mentor and community leader. He founded The Food Fight, a non-profit culinary competition for high school students that has awarded nearly $200,000 in scholarships. He has taught masterclasses at Lincoln Culinary Institute and Johnson & Wales, and his dedication to education, mentorship, and excellence continues to inspire both aspiring chefs and seasoned professionals.

With his radiant energy, proven skillset, and deep love for storytelling through food, Chef Jamall brings unforgettable flavour and flair to every charter experience aboard CARPE DIEM.

The CAPTAIN and CREW look forward to welcoming
you onboard CARPE DIEM.
